State College Closes Doors: USD Lends Hand

By JACK POLLARD
News Editor

Grossmont College, along with the University of San Diego, are in the process of aiding students who are being wedged out at San Diego State College because of overcrowding.

The largest spring semester enrollment ever is being anticipated at Grossmont Junior College while U.S.D. has delayed their start of the Spring semester to allow students to enroll in time for classes.

Dr. Robert N. Burnham, Grossmont College vice president for student personnel services, in commenting on the San Diego State College announcement said, "The curtailment of enrollment at State will have a terrific impact on our spring enrollment. In order to adequately plan for the spring semester we will have to immediately ascertain the number of students that we have who plan to transfer to State in the spring."

"We are going to have to identify the student, his major, and determine the total number of units that he will have to have completed at the end of this semester. I would urge students who are planning to transfer to State College for the semester to contact the Counseling Center as soon as possible and record the necessary information."

"This information will be forwarded to State and used as a basis to determine the admissibility of the student," he said.

The college expects a spring enrollment of 6,400 students. They can take up to 7,000 at the school without creating any problems.

Semester Delay

Students at USD have been advised that the semester change would mean the second semester will start Feb. 3 instead of Jan. 27 as previously published. Commencement exercises planned for May 31 will not be affected.

In an official statement read to students it was explained that the recommendation for a change came from the faculty.

"The chief motivation for this proposal is the desire to respond to the educational needs of the San Diego area. Overcrowded conditions at local state and junior colleges have created serious problems for students," said the statement.

"Recognizing that the University of San Diego might be able to help the situation by accepting at the semester a number of well qualified students who may wish to come here to ensure the continuance of their education, the faculty proposed the adjustment of the Spring semester dates by one week."

Until the semester change, there would have been insufficient time for a student at a public-supported college to transfer to USD. The week delay to Feb. 3 will allow those students who wish to register with USD time to do so.

Sister Nancy Morris and the Very Rev. John E. Baer, presidents of the colleges at USD said they were pleased the University could play its part in the life of the community by being able to adjust to meet an education crisis, part.

Spring Valley Expansion Planned

Teen Center Molds New Life

By JACK POLLARD,
News Editor

A teen-age center, developed around the theory that kids who have no place to go to, where they can receive directions in bettering their way of life is helping to mold the future of many teen-agers in the Lemon Grove area.

The Teen Action Center at 7654 Broadway, Lemon Grove, with a staff of two full-time workers and four persons on a part-time basis, is providing the youth with recreational facilities, along with personal guidance.

Heading up the team of workers, is Don Pearson, a former Lemon Grove businessman. He opens the center daily at 3 p.m. On Saturday he opens it at 1 p.m. while on Sunday it is opened at 11 a.m.

Nova Smith, president of Nova Computer Systems, and a resident of Lemon Grove, also helps out at the center. He sits on the board of directors.

He said that the center is aimed at youths who have no money and that do not have a place to enjoy themselves.

At the center ping-pong tables, a pool table, checker and chess games, books, magazines and other recreational materials are made available to the teen-agers.

Spring Valley Center
The center has been such a success that the board of directors are looking into the possibilities of opening a center in Spring Valley.

The Rev. Orville Butcher, pastor at the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church in Lemon Grove, is also helping Pearson and his aids in exploring the feasibility of the Spring Valley program.

They will meet Monday, Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the South Spring Valley Shopping Center Community Hall.

The group has contacted various organizations, individuals and churches in the area asking for their help in setting up the new center.

At an earlier meeting held

in October, Smith and Mrs. Peggy McClain, workers at the Lemon Grove center, said that they are attempting to communicate with the youngsters.

Smith said, "We want to give to the kids the help that they need in order to find themselves."

"We are trying to impress on them the Christian values that will fit in their relationship with other people as they get older."

"It has been said that for a man to change his ways as he gets older it is more difficult than if he had been instructed correctly in the first place."

"That is the theory that we follow. We have a problem in this nation with leaving the work of teaching our youngsters values that make men to the other man."

"As a result, nothing is getting done that should be in youth work... especially in a nation like ours."

"If we don't get involved with our children then we are going to have even a greater problem than this nation faces now."

The center, which opened in February of this year has seen an enrollment of 270 teen-agers. Each night an average of 30 youths can be seen utilizing the center's resources.

The program is supported from area churches. The need for additional money, recreational materials and workers to aid at the center currently exists.

Difficult Job

Smith said, "It is a difficult job working with the kids. They know if you are trying to fool them, or put something over on them. We need people who can handle this difficult job of truly fitting into the program."

The youths are not required to attend the center on any day of the week, nor are they required to shell out any money for the services that they receive, Smith pointed out.

He said, that a snack bar is in operation to help defray the cost of operation. A thrift shop is located in the adjacent part of the center to add

Record 30 Students Expelled For Drug Violations In School

Twenty-five boys and five girls have been expelled from the Grossmont Union High School District for violations of the narcotic policy set two years ago by officials.

The move came Monday night at a board session that ran some 4½ hours and lasted until 12:30 a.m. Dr. Austin Sellery, superintendent has asked principals of district schools to suggest programs that could lower usage of drugs among students.

At the same time, a Lemon Grove mother whose son collapsed Oct. 18 on the Mt. Miguel High School baseball field, and nearly died from apparent use of drugs, said that another solution should be found other than expelling students.

She told the board in a letter, "We do not see suspension and expulsion as effective deterrents to experimentation in the use of these dangerous substances."

In expelling the largest number of students in two years, it was pointed out that 24 cases were involved with dangerous drugs and inhalants while four were for the use of marijuana.

Dr. Sellery said that the increase in the number of violations, has resulted from the ready availability of "pills" from Mexico. They can be purchased for as little as seven cents and distribution is easy.

The superintendent, as well as parents in the area, are seeking other ways to help children in drug prevention and to curb drug usage.

Sellery made a request before the board recently to seek alternate solutions for the help of the student.

Suggested were a home study program that would fall under the direction of the Continuation High School, and the other was an easier policy for students who are first time users.

A New Image for San Diego

A couple more intriguing doors are being opened to the world by San Diego developers.

Two current marina developments bid fair to make San Diego the water-loving sports-center of all the world.

Never in history has there been so vast a marina program planned for a single area. In San Diego, at the south end of the Silver Strand, and in Imperial Beach, just north of the border, are projects that boggle the imagination.

Coronado Cays (properly pronounced "keys") got off to the first start. Financed by the Signal Oil people, the 370-acre project will offer more than 1,500 homes ranging in price from $33,000 to $100,000 on four man-made islands with such exotic sounding names as Green Turtle Cay, and Jamaica Village. The Caribbean theme will be followed throughout.

The Imperial Beach marina, as yet to be given an exotic name, plans a community of 3,500 lots, a population of 15,000 persons, mostly boat owners; a 20-acre shopping center, yacht club, deluxe restaurant, plus some sundry high-rise apartments and a motel/boater or two.

The latter development is the brain-child project of a man well-known in Lemon Grove. He is Dr. Ted Lamborn, whose father lived, until recently, on Golden ave.

Dr. Lamborn is already committed to spending $10 million dollars on the project, plus another million for dredging. His lots will sell for $15,000 to $25,000. He had to negotiate with the Navy to swap some land to put the affair together. It is up to his everlasting credit that he negotiated successfully because scores of San Diegans have attempted to work out land use deals with arms of the federal government and few have succeeded. But Dr. Lamborn got his message through.

All of this will change the complexion of San Diego, making it more of the resort center of the nation it is destined to eventually be.

An interesting part of the Imperial Beach development is the man who made it possible. Dr. Lamborn, who like his father, is well known to many people in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, Dr. Lamborn has made many talks to service

St. Rita's Catholic Church Conducts 9-Day Solemn Novena

A Solemn Novena is being conducted through Nov. 12 at St. Rita's Catholic church by Father Robert M. Kirkpatrick, a Redemptionist Priest, in honor of Our Mother of Perpetual Help.

Father Kirkpatrick has been conducting Missions and Novenas along the West Coast and throughout the Midwest since leaving here eight years ago.

Throughout the nine days of the Novena the main religious exercises takes place at 7:30 p.m. daily.

These exercises consist of the Novena Mass with Sermon within the Mass. Novena Prayers and Blessings will follow the Mass immediately. Afterwards Confessions will be heard.

Father Kirkpatrick will be available for counseling mornings and afternoons daily.

A spokesman for the church said, "the people of St. Rita's have shown staunch persevering devotion to Our Mother of Perpetual Help While not a case of demand ing 'signs and wonders' to believe in the intercessory power of Mary, they have received signs if not wonders.

"One sign, and only one though perhaps the most impressive, is that in 1955 when the parishioners of St. Rita's were in sore need of a new church and worrying about the means to get it they held a three day special Novena to Our Mother of Perpetual Help to pray for guidance and assistance.

"Within weeks the pastor was promised $100,000 for the new church from a most unexpected source. Within a year the $100,000 was all paid and St. Rita got it's beautiful new church."

The General Intention of the Solemn Novena will be that the efforts for peace, led by President Johnson, will result in a just peace in Vietnam. Special intentions will be prayed for also, the spokesman said.

Tokyo University became co-educational after World War II.

Local Marine Saved In Lucky Viet Mine Tilt

DONG HA, Vietnam, Oct. 24 — It was a typical path through a rice paddy; a short cut from the Cau Viet River to a nearby laundry used by Marines in the area.

Cpl. John D. Sprague, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sprague of 6665 MacArthur dr., Lemon Grove, and Pvt. Rickie ork, making the laundry run from their unit, 1st Amphibian Tractor Bn., 3rd Marine Division, struggled briefly with the large bag of clothes as they made their way from the Cau Viet landing ramp near Dong Ha.

York hoisted the sack on his shoulder and the two Leathernecks made their way up the path.

York's foot tripped an anti-personnel mine and the earth erupted around them.

Quickly and carefully, the men retraced their steps and headed for nearby bunkers. Other personnel, hearing the explosion, believed it enemy artillery fire and headed for bunkers too.

The area is only a scant four miles from the demilitarized zone.

It wasn't until York reached the safety of the bunker that he began to feel a stinging sensation in the back of his legs.

Navy Corpsman Martin Cohen, was in the same bunker. He noted small fragments in York's back and legs, and took him to a nearby field hospital, where he was released the following day.

The area York and Sprague had crossed was an old abandoned French minefield.

According to Marine engineer Sgt. Walter M. Price, York's life was spared because of recent rains had softened the earth, causing the mine to tilt on its side.

When York tripped it, the blast blew parallel to the ground . . . instead of straight up.

Sprague and the others were not even scratched.

What about the laundry bag? It didn't even have a hole in it!

The first mint was established in the Massachusetts Bay Colony about 1652. John Hull managed the mint and coined shillings and two-thirds, and six-pence pieces.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

How is the apostrophe s ('s) used in Spanish? Does it show possession in the same manner as in English? The apostrophe s is not used in Spanish. Possession is shown in another way by using the word "de" (of) before the principal noun.

More specifically in an example, when we say "It is Mary's book," the apostrophe s is applied to the word Mary to identify the owner (or possessor) of the book. In Spanish this is translated "Es el libro de Maria," which literally means "It is the book of Mary." In this translation the word "de" (of) has preceded "Maria" in order to reflect possession, and by this, we know that it is Mary's book.

Another example of possession may be found in the expression "Es el saco de Tomas." (It is Tom's coat.). Here the apostrophe s has been added to the word Tom to indicate that he is the owner of the coat. In Spanish, though, we see that the apostrophe s is not used and Tomas is preceded by "de" to reflect possession.

It is very easy to construct the possessive form by placing "de" directly before the owners name. Consider these examples: "La blusa de Maria" (Mary's blouse), "La camisa de Roberto" (Robert's shirt), and "El dinero de Jose" (Joe's money). In each of these cases you will not that the apostrophe s precedes the object of possession in the English expressions and the word "de" precedes the owner in the Spanish expression.

Today's telephone practice phrases contain words with apostrophe s ('s) which are translated by reflecting "de" before the principal noun. Read the expressions over and practice saying them with the recorded voice when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone. The voice pauses while you say the same words and phrases. Try it now.

Say "Es el amigo de Juan?" (ehs ehl ah-MEE-goh deh who-AHN) for "Is it John's friend?" Say "No es su amigo." (noh ehs soo ah-MEE-goh) for "It is not his friend."

USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Donde esta el saco de Roberto?" (DOHN-deh eh-STAH ehl SAH-koh deh roh-BEH-TOH) for "Where is Robert's coat?" Say "No se." (noh SEH) for "I don't know."

OTHER PHRASES

Two Miguel Students Selected As Members For Honor Choir

Two Mt. Miguel High School students have been selected to take part in the Southern California Honor Choir in Los Angeles. The two are Darlene Keith and Faith Walters.

Darlene resides with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Holcomb, 8730 Hartzel dr., Spring Valley while Faith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger T. Walters, 8819 Lance ave., Spring Valley.

Both students are sophomores at the school. They were selected from some 500 persons who were competing for the honors. They will attend three rehearsals in Los Angeles.

From there, they will perform in three shows, including one at the Music Center in L.A., which will be televised, a concert for the general public and one at the CMFA-SS Mid-Winter Conference.

Robert Boucher, director of the Mt. Miguel choir, said, "I am extremely proud and delighted that two of our students have the tremendous experience ahead of them of singing in a choir consisting of the best singers in Southern Calif."

Both students are sopranos.

Marriage Class Slated

A free course entitled "Marriage and You" is scheduled to begin at the Patrick Henry Adult School on Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 7 p.m.

Taught by Bert Anderson, La Jolla Marriage Counselor, the classes are expected to give helpful information about what goes into a happy and lasting marriage.

A practice in methods of communicating, listening, problem solving and marital conflict resolution, will also be held.

More than 100 persons attended the classes last year.

The classes will take place in the Hero's Room at the school which is located at 6702 Wandermere rd., one block off Navajo rd., San Diego.

Crossing Problem Is Eyed

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Formation of a committee to work with the perplexing problem of pedestrian safety for students has been approved by the county board of supervisors.

The problem becomes more acute when roads are widened from two lanes to four lanes, such as on Sweetwater rd. and Jamacha blvd. in Spring Valley.

The committee would work toward the establishment of warrants or criteria for installing traffic safety devices.

County Engineer David K. Speer said the matter should be limited to the installation of traffic or flashing lights.

The county will ask for representation from the Ninth District PTA, School Boards Assn., of School Administrators, Highway Patrol, Sheriff, State Division of Highways, traffic engineer and courts of San Diego and other groups.

Speer said that a new state law provides that local highway authorities establish guidelines to indicate the financial responsibility of the schools and the highway authority.

Sunday Open House Slated At Jr. College

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residents have been invited to attend "Open House" at Grossmont College on Sunday, Nov. 17, from 1 to 4 p.m.

The open house is being jointly sponsored by the college administration, faculty, and student body. All instructional facilities of the college will be open.

Representatives from each academic department as well as members of the counseling staff will be available in the Student Center to provide information on various courses offered at the school.

Campus tours will be conducted throughout the afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Blackburn

"All work and no play (until later)", paid off in a big way or Mrs. Charles Blackburn of Lemon Grove.

Concentrated effort in product sales resulted in an all-expense-paid trip to Las Vegas for she and her husband.

Their activities included the jet flight, dinner shows at the Tropicana, Riviera and Sahara night spots, a guided tour of Las Vegas, and a cruise on Lake Mead.

The three day trip was paid for by Luzier Cosmetics, Inc., a subsidiary company of the Bristol-Meyers Corp.

An added reward of a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond was presented to Mrs. Blackburn at an Awards Banquet in Las Vegas. She was among the top 15 in the United States in recruiting new Consultants.

The title of Regional Manager is a new one to the company and Mrs. Blackburn is one of only a few in the entire nation.

Toros To Play For Grid Title

The Los Toros Roadrunners of Pop Warner football league dropped Seaview here Saturday 53-7. Backs Jenner, Sam Smith, Mike Benson, and David Cann all scored for the locals while a Jess Jenner to end Gary Klusman pass accounted for another TD. Doug Geax pushed across four extra points to complete the scoring for Shorty Banister's powerful Midgets.

The win places the locals in a tie with El Cajon for the division lead. The division championship will be played Saturday.

The location of the game had not been decided at press time.

Drizzles Help Rain Totals

A mini-rain of .01 of an inch on Oct. 30 brought the season total in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley to .24 inches.

Light drizzles occurred two days in July and three days in August and a couple of the same things during the nights during the past week contributed slightly to the total, according to Fire Dept. Engineer Leon Anderson, who is the local meteorologist. He said the heaviest rainfall was .04 inches on Oct. 15.

The .24 inches season total compares with zero for the same period last year.

Last year the season total was 11.87 inches. The six year average is 13.05. Rainfall seasons start July 1.

Parking Lot Style Changes

By Sandy Mayberry

High school student parking lots just are not what they use to be... as a matter of fact it wasn't too long ago when student parking lots did not exist.

Life at Monte Vista High School is different. It is more than just books and football games, and the proof is in the student parking lot.

It is here that a certain superiority of the senior students can be seen with pronounced effects.

For example... one parking space is entitled, "D. Daley Corp."

It belongs to Don Daley. Moving on down the line is "Flutterbye", which may or may not describe its occupant, but is certainly descriptive of the owner Jana Sigars.

Another space, "The French Revolution" has been set up as a monument to the successful campaign last year for the office of General Affairs by Martha French.

While "Little Miss Muffet" is occupied by a little yellow Chevy, and owned by a little Cindy... the space entitled, "The Bod", has been set aside by its owner for any senior girl who can measure up to the name.

What it all boils down to is this... each year, at Monte Vista High School, the seniors auction off parking spaces for members of that class.

Terry Hooever paid $17 for her parking slot setting a new school record.

The $300 that was collected at the auction for the parking spots is pumped into the senior class treasury to help defray costs of various class activities in the final year of high school.

Aztecs Tackle S. Mississippi Saturday Night

One of the top university division teams in the deep south will move into San Diego Stadium Saturday, at 8 p.m. as they go out to pin the first defeat of the year on the San Diego State College Aztecs.

The University of Southern Mississippi is expected to use a good defense along with an explosive offense in an attempt to upend the Aztec's bid for a undefeated season.

The Southerners, the second of three university division teams the Aztecs play this year, hold a 3-4 record. Southern Mississippi has knocked off Southeastern Louisiana, 27-15, East Carolina, 65-0 and Mississippi State, 47-14.

USM has lost to powerful Alabama, 17-14, Ole Miss, 21-13 and Memphis State, 29-7.

Local Lassies Splash To Net Trophies

Four local girls were feted recently at an Annual Awards banquet for members of the La Mesa Swim Association.

The Swim Association is comprised of swimmers from the Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, La Mesa, and El Cajon areas and members complete all year throughout three western states.

Winner of the high point award at the banquet was Lesley Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Carlson, of 2110 Dayton dr., Lemon Grove.

High point in the 13-14 year age bracket was Lisa Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Goodwin, 8504 Palm st., Lemon Grove.

Diane Carlson, Lesley's sister, took the high point trophy for 11-12 year-old girls.

Erin McLaughlin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dennis McLaughlin, of 1339 Cornwall, Spring Valley, captured the "most improved" trophy in the 12 and under age category. She is ten.

Crush El Cajon 35-6

Hope Hang High For Helix Win Over Granite Hills Friday

By TOM WARREN
Helix High School Sports Writer

After breezing to a 35-6 win over El Cajon last week, the Helix football squad will tackle the leading Granite Hills Eagles tomorrow night at Valley Stadium.

The Eagles, boasting a 4-1 league record, are currently in a deadlock for first place with El Capitan and face a must-win situation if they are to keep pace with the Vaqueros.

A key figure in the Eagle battle plan is quarterback Tim Doer, whose exceptional running ability has made him one of the highest rated quarterbacks in the Grossmont League.

Doer was injured last week against Grossmont but should be ready for tomorrow night's skirmish.

Reserve quarterback Phil Ponikera, passed for two touchdowns last week in Doer's place and led the Eagles to a 20-7 upset victory over on their own 24-yard line. Coover then intercepted a Brad McRoberts pass and ran it back for 46 yards and paydirt.

The Scots rounded out their first half scoring with a 59-yard touchdown pass from Coover to junior halfback John Landis.

Both teams posted their final scores in the third quarter, with the Highlanders pounding out two more and the Eagles one.

The first Helix score in the third quarter came on a 20-yard aerial from Coover to junior Butch Paddock. El Cajon then rebounded with a 45-yard pass play from McRoberts to junior Mike Wagner.

The final score of the contest was chalked up by senior Mike Anthof as he crossed the goal line from two yards out late in the quarter. The kick by Burt Clements was good and the final score stood Helix 35, El Cajon 6.

Among those singled out by head coach Al Hammersmidt for outstanding play in the game were Coover, Althof, Landis, Bill Denhart, and Steve Starling.

He was also quick to point out the "great" play of both the offensive and defensive lines and added that if the team can play as well this week as they did last they should be able to knock off Granite Hills.

Water Polo Team Dumps University

Mt. Miguel High School's water polo team has continued to rip the league up as they crushed a tough University High 17-4 after getting off to a close start.

Last week the team dumped a previously undefeated Monte Vista High School 4-8 in a rugged battle that saw the winner make the final push in the last half of the meet.

The Matadors scored against University in every quarter. Don Carlson opened up the scoring. He went on to score a total of five goals for the day. Rick Ingraham pushed in for four other scores.

According to Roger Moreau, coach of the team, the club is improving and he is now looking forward to a berth in the CIF playoffs.

Four teams will be invited to take part in the playoffs. The junior varsity also whipped University, 6-3.

Best In State Olympian Praises Harriers

From SCOTT McGAUGH
Monte Vista Sports Writer

"These kids are amazing!" Olympic standout Billy Mills had high words of praise for members of the Monte Vista High School varsity and junior varsity cross country teams Saturday at San Diego State College, as they made a grand sweep at the Aztec Invitational meet.

Monte Vista came home with 23 medals, five trophies and the Perpetual San Diego Sweepstakes Award as they defended their title as being the best dual-meet team in the state.

At the Aztec Invitational, Dave Carter who set a course record paced the state champs to the victory post as he picked off a solid first place. The next five runners to place were all fellow team mates.

The junior varsity team retired the County JV Championship Trophy as they won the cup for the third straight year. Their time as a squad was faster than the varsity team, and two minutes faster than their opponent's.

The Monarchs have been named as the best in the state according to the recent results at the MT. SAC Invitational Meet held in Los Angeles.

In that contest the varsity squad was entered in the large school division.

They won the meet with a low score of 44 points. Upland High School, even though they finished one second faster than the locals, did not pick up the team title.

Monte Vista Ties Santana, Plays El Capitan Friday Night

Tying a football is said to be like kissing your sister but to most Monarch fans, the 7-7 tie with Santana last Friday wasn't all that bad.

Monte Vista High School will have to concentrate on the El Capitan battle this Friday as the Vaqueros will be up after being upset by Mount Miguel last Friday.

Monte Vista played its best game of the season against the Sultans but couldn't seem to get the pigskin into the paydirt.

The Monarchs were within 35 yards of the Sultan goal three times in the last two minutes. A stopped fake field goal, a missed field goal and lack of time terminated all

Miguel Harriers Take 2nd Place At Invitational

The Mt. Miguel High School cross country team took a second place at the Aztec Invitational contest last Saturday with a total of 78 points.

Senior Mike Drew streaked over the tough two-mile course in 12 minutes-27 seconds for a 4th place, while Gary Heiserman ran the course nine seconds behind Drew to come in 8th place.

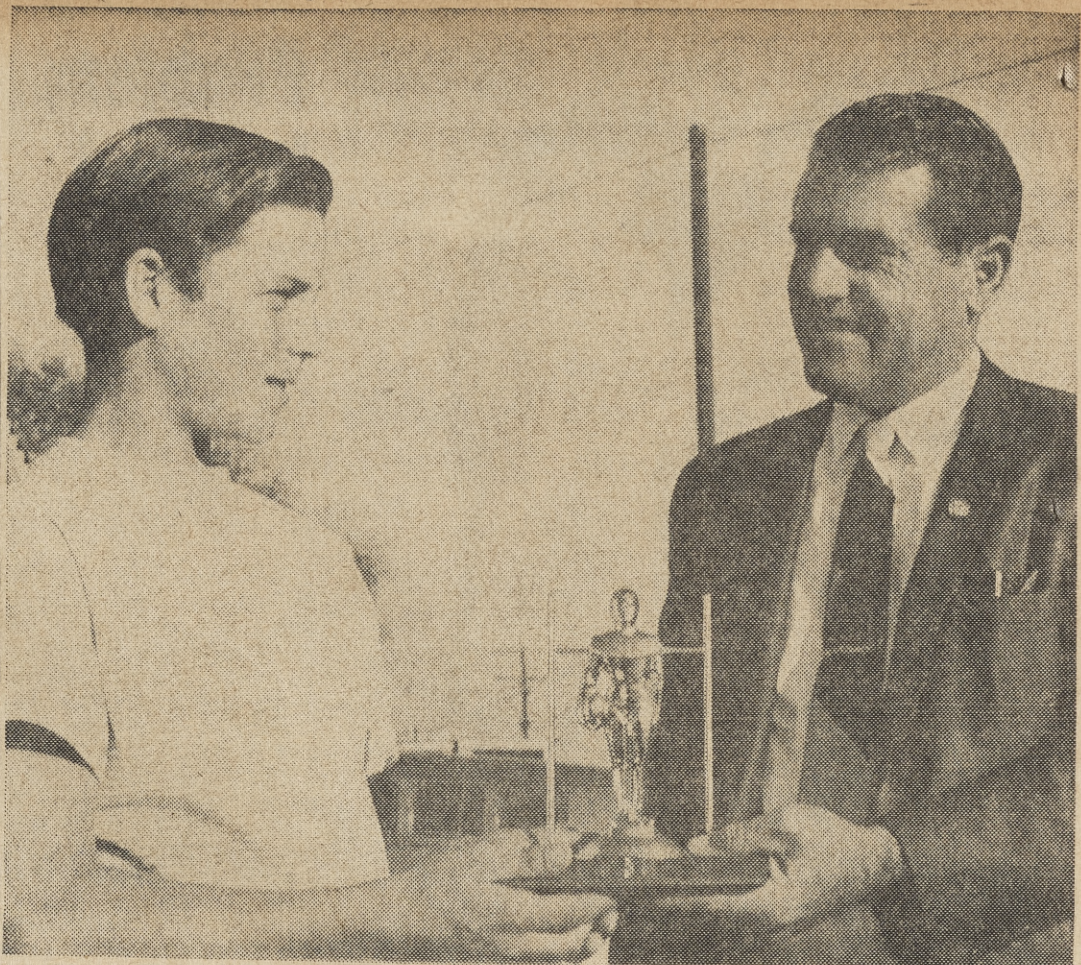

Sam Peterson finished 18th; Bob Morrison, 23rd, and Flynn Barnett closed out the scoring for Mt. Miguel as he came in 25th.

The Junior Varsity squad came in fourth, behind Kearney, Helix and Crawford.

Marco Ibarra paced the JV's with a 13:35 time. John Heimaster and Jim Jones both turned in good times according to coach Ted Banks.

The freshmen finished out with a second place. They were three points off of first place winner Oceanside. Joe Stubbs, with a time of 8:35 and Norm Jimenez with a 9:11 time paced the frosh.

Mt. Miguel will host Santana tomorrow and then travel to Monte Vista on Friday, Nov. 15.

County Wide Swimming Meet Opens Saturday

Top swimmers will gather on Saturday and Sunday at the National City Municipal pool to take part in a county-wide Pentathlon which is being sanctioned by the Pacific Southwest Association and the Amateur Athletic Union.

The Copley YMCA will enter their team along with others from the county area. Last year, the Copley team was represented with 16 members taking part in the championships.

Sports... Matadors Seek Third Straight Win Friday In Santana Battle

By JOHN NICHOLSON
Mt. Miguel Sports Writer

Mt. Miguel's red hot Matadors, fresh off of a 19-15 upset over previously undefeated El Capitan, will host Santana, tomorrow night at 8 p.m., to cap Miguel's Homecoming affair.

The Matadors, who will be shooting for their third straight win against the Sultans, thumped El Capitan in the first three quarters, then hung on to win.

The Matadors jumped off to a quick start when they recovered an El Cap fumble on the first play from scrimmage. Mike Tyler and Mark Dressing moved the ball 29 yards in two plays for the quick score.

El Capitan rebounded with a touchdown, but failed to get the extra point, during the first period play.

In the second period Mt. Miguel was ready again as Tyler hit Larry Caudillo in a 45-yard pass play.

On the next play Dressing slipped across the line in a 15-yard run for the score.

In the closing minutes of play, El Capitan knocked on the scoring door when they moved to Miguel's 7-yard line.

They were held there for no score.

As the ball changed hands, Mt. Miguel was pushed back to the one-yard line. On the next play El Capitan scored a safety for two points when Tyler was dumped in an end zone rollout play.

In the last seconds of play, a long El Capitan pass was intercepted to put the game on ice for Mt. Miguel.

According to Bill Leep, coach of Mt. Miguel, he said that the Matador's defense was the key to the win.

Head coach Ben Cipranic said, "It feels just great to win."

The game marked the second major upset that the Matadors have made in Grossmont League play. Last year, the big upset came as Mt. Miguel edged Grossmont 6-2.

Helix Harriers Move Into Second Place In League

By DON KIENER
Helix Cross Country Reporter

The Helix varsity cross country team will travel to Granite Hills tomorrow, with hopes of capturing their sixth win of the season, and their fourth league victory against two defeats.

Last Saturday, (Nov. 2), the varsity and junior varsity squads competed in the annual Aztec Invitational where they finished fourth and first respectively last year.

The varsity attack was weakened with the loss of sophomore Ed Mendoza who is sidelined with a complex leg ailment.

The loss of Mendoza, who had been their top harrier, was evident as the Scots came in seventh out of nine schools despite the strong performance of Darryl Simmons, who finished first out of 63 entries.

The junior varsity, however, after finishing first for two consecutive years, came in second behind Kearney.

Both teams suffered from a lack of grouping, especially the varsity who's first man finished first, while the last man finished 61st. The junior varsity had a span of 21 positions between their first and last men.

On Tuesday, Oct. 29, the Scots defeated El Cajon for the first time in five years, 25-35. Simmons again finished first, while setting a new school record of 9:26.

The Highlanders are now now 5-2 for the season, and 3-2 in league competition.

They are currently resting in third place in the Grossmont league standings behind second place Mount Miguel, 4-1, and first place Monte Vista, 5-0.

The Helix junior varsity also downed the Braves, 23-38, and are now 6-1 for the season. This puts them in second place with a 4-1 league slate.

Charger-Patriot Game Televised Sunday A.M.

The San Diego Chargers will travel to Boston for a Sunday afternoon game at Fenway park. The game will be televised over KOGO-10 starting at 10:30 a.m.

On Nov. 17 they will take on Bills at Buffalo. The Chargers will return to San Diego on Nov. 24 when they face the New York Jets.

S.V. School District Marks American Ed. Week

Major emphasis for American Education Week, Nov. 10-16, in La Mesa-Spring Valley schools will be placed on the district's parent-teacher conference program.

Dr. David Pascoe, associate superintendent, said most schools have just completed back-to-school night programs and grade level meetings.

The period Nov. 12-22 has been designated as minimum days for upper graders (4-56) in all bus schools in order to provide additional time for parent-teacher conferences scheduled at that time. Dismissal time for bus schools on these days, generally, will be 1 p.m. Specific schedules will be announced by schools.

Some of the parent-teacher conferences will be held during the period January 27-31, 1969.

Conference periods are also scheduled for children of other grades in bus schools and for children in "walking schools."

Some of these conferences are now being held. Parents will be notified if and when their conferences are scheduled.

Pascoe said, "Citizens of the La Mesa-Spring Valley area have been generous in their support of the schools and they are encouraged to be as fully informed as possible about schools and the educational program. Citizens have a standing invitation to visit schools. Only request is that all visitors check in the school office before going to classrooms."

'Secret' Radio May Soon Serve 'Inland Empire'

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce attracted 31 members and guests to its Tuesday meeting — the largest turnout in more than a year.

It heard a potpourri of requests — honoring most of them.

In one, Andrew Kerr, a Lemon Grove health food store operator, asked the chamber to approve his application for an FM radio station to serve Lemon Grove — and the "Inland Empire" — to be built in El Cajon. He introduced two of the future employees of the station and warned the chamber to keep his proposed venture "secret" because competitors might attempt to beat him to the wave length. The Federal Communications Commission has yet to approve his request. The Chamber agreed to submit a letter to FCC indicating "that a need for such a station exists."

Chamber President Frank Shughrue distributed "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early" cards.

Southland Names R. Leui as Veep

Harry H. Holthusen, president of Southland Savings, announced the appointment of Robert W. Leui to the position of Assistant Vice President of the San Diego based association. Southland's facility here is at Broadway and Main streets in Lemon Grove.

Leui holds a Class 4 Appraiser Rating. This is the highest rating issued by the California State Savings & Loan Commissioner. His primary duties will be in the Loan Division with special attention to loan origination. Leui's activities will accrue to the benefit of all ten Southland locations.

In his announcement, Holthusen said, "The appointment of Robert Leui to officer status is in keeping with our personnel promotion policy. Southland is dedicated to the development and promotion of financial talent from within our own organization, whenever possible."

L.G. Men Arraigned On Drug Charges

Three Lemon Grove men were arraigned Wednesday in San Diego Courts following a fracas in Balboa Park between groups of motorcyclists and hippies.

All, 22 persons including juveniles, were taken into custody. Four other persons were hospitalized after taking drugs or narcotics, police said.

One man is in University hospital after being knifed in the neck — a wound which narrowly missed his jugular vein.

The Lemon Grove men are: James Ollie Upton, 19, of 2740 Olive st. arraigned on a marijuana possession felony charge; William Clifford Arbuckle, 19, 1953 Ensenada st., misdemeanor possession of dangerous drugs charge, and Stephen Thomas Tothshok, 20, of 7120 San Miguel ave., misdemeanor dangerous drugs and resisting arrest charges.

Police said that a melee erupted after members of the groups began overturning trash cans and harrasing park visitors.

The brawl attracted more than 300 persons.

Officers said what started to be a love-in erupted into a fight between the hippies and the motorcyclists about noon following trash can incidents.

The Clancy Const. Co. was the lowest bidder in the August call with $1 million. The district was told by state officials that they would have to stay around the $850,000 construction figure in order to receive approval.

Construction of the new school is expected to be done in a seven month period.

Other phases of the school will be added as needed and the funds as dictated according to Hobson.

The bids had to be sent out three times because of the increase cost in labor and construction materials.

Wallace's Rep Visits Grove

Alabama State Senator Fred C. Folsom was in Lemon Grove last week to tie down some financial loose ends in the presidential campaign of former Alabama Governor George Wallace.

He was guest at the home of Mrs. Ralph Cadwell, of 3130 Chateau way.

Senator Folsom, the nephew of Alabama's former governor Kiffin' Jim Folsom, represents more than 100,000 residents in Cullman and Walker Counties.

He is two years into his second four year term as State senator. He is an attorney in Cullman.

His actual position with Wallace is that of national coordinator. He left Lemon Grove for New York and New Jersey.

He cited military polls that showed Wallace well ahead of the two other candidates a week before the election. The national polls in America are controlled by Rockefeller and the eastern financial interests Senator Folsom said.

"The polls are contrived to create an atmosphere of victory for those who sponsor them," he said. "Americans like to go with a winner and many cast their vote on that basis," he added.

He did not indicate how much he collected in Lemon Grove. He admonished several visitors at Mrs. Cadwell's home to help underwrite part of the campaign expenses.

He said that he had no plan to serve in Wallace's cabinet, but "I'll serve wherever George asks," he said.

Folsom, a handsome, intelligent man, would have made a fine national figure, had Wallace won.

Any Lawn Can Use Some Improvement: This Fall Is The Ideal Time To Start

If rebuilding a lawn is in order, don't wait until Spring — start now. First consideration is to supply the grass plants with Winter Survival, a plant food to help them better take the ravages of cold weather.

Handsome Storage Pergola Shelters Garden Equipment

There's no need to let valuable garden tools and other equipment lie around in awkward places when any week-end carpenter can build this storage pergola to house them.

This handsome pergola pays a triple dividend of convenience, longer equipment life and added property value. It also offers a spot where dad can barbecue out of the hot-hot sun or set up his potted plants to be transplanted. The pergola is completely paneled and roofed with waterproof exterior plywood which will last as long as the main house.

Construction is easy. The foundations are simple concrete footings with imbedded metal "U" supports that rise the entire structure above ground and moisture contact. Framing for roof and storage cabinets is straightforward, requiring only common carpenter's tools for erection.

Shelf arrangement suggestions are provided, but you can, of course, arrange them to suit your own needs after you have assembled the basic cabinet.

Roofing takes the form of giant shingles, panels of 3/8-inch plywood laid with lapped horizontal joints, shedding rain and sun with equal facility.

Plans for this value-adding pergola are available for 10 cents from the American Plywood Association, 1119 A St., Tacoma, Wash. 98401.

Designed by top architects expressly for week-end carpenters, this attractive and practical storage pergola is a permanent home improvement that offers a covered lounging area combined with convenient storage for gardening material.

No matter how beautiful a lawn many look, there are always some parts of it which could stand improvement. And, conversely, most lawns are not completely hopeless and can be brought back to renewed vigor by renovation.

The best time to embark on a renovation program — or complete rebuilding if necessary — is now, in Fall. This is actually Nature's time for sowing seeds of grasses. Weather conditions are ideal: warm days and cool nights; a good amount of rainfall; and, of great im-

Create Pleasant Atmosphere With Furniture And Accessories

Furniture is for using! Accessories are for collection! Draperies, walls and carpets are for creating atmosphere and illusion.

Here, a combination of the three has turned a long, narrow living-dining room into an imaginative, highly personal room suited to busy gregarious living. An area that can accommodate multiple activities and interests, withstand clatter of small children, blend to casual entertaining or ceremoniously welcome formal occasions.

The furniture is Bassett. High styled, cosmopolitan, usable and moderately priced.

For dining, the new Forte Collection in Arno finish on Cherry veneers and selected hardwoods features simulated wood intricate mouldings that frame the classical hardware of stylized leaves and ribbons. The Italian Provincial chairs with lush foam upholstered cushions and cane backs are in antique white finish and the octagonal shaped pedestal table is equally decorative with its top of cherry veneers and selected hardwoods and contrasting antique white pedestal base. The breakfront, 62 inches wide, leads a double life for "show off" displays and for spacious storage. Highly styled with gridded glass doors and antiqued brass-finished hardware. Equally interesting is the mobile server with concealed casters, door storage, and care-free Micarta (R) plastic top.

The living area reflects the same radiant mood as it continues the Italian style decor. The tables are of generous size with mouldings framing the aprons and finely detailed legs. Deep route lines frame the tops of cherry veneers and selected hardwoods or choose carefree simulated marble tops. The sofa is truly exceptional, combining quality construction with unusual comfort, and high style. Self patterned to welcome use and "Scotchguard" treated to resist stain. Unusually thick and soft latex foam cushions. The blending of the exposed cherry finish selected hardwood frame with the highly decorative brocade fabric, graced with antique needlepoint pillows, created a picture of welcoming beauty.

Accessories are objects both of appeal and of special interest that identify you and give your home a very special flavor. They may be prized antiques as the brass candle sticks on the server or newer finds of objects d'art, as this clear block of West Virginia glass on the coffee table. A terrific conversation piece as it sparkles its accents under both natural and artificial lights. Also, use it for a paperweight for daily papers and mail that require immediate attention. On the end table is the new look in glass accessories — mercury glass. The unique way in which it is made (blown first and then mercury added by pouring it inside the glass, quite similar to an ordinary thermos bottle) give the effect of a shapeless hunk of polished silver ore. Not only a distinguished piece, but it adds distinction to the greyish

Getting The Most From Bulbs

"We won't sell you just one Hyacinth bulb" was a statement in one nursery's newspaper ad, and needless to say it caused a lot of customer comment.

What the nursery was advocating, of course, was the use of several Hyacinths to create a lovely splash of tones of the tortoise shell lamp.

Continuing in the silver tones is the ten inch table easel that provides maximum visibility to famous reproductions from the old masters that you enjoy and delight in close range display. The painting in the dining area is a contemporary oil painted on wood. Choose an original for your wall, one that is unframed, and one that you respond to and feel you can't live without. Price is not the point here, although many are reasonable, personality is the factor, and the perfect way to select the right color scheme.

The illusion of larger room dimensions is created in this living-dining area by using a graceful, simple curved arch. An architectural delight, and requires only inches of space and creates the effect of separate rooms. This same effect is skillfully continued in the dramatic use of different floors, white vinyl for dining and dark wood for living. The look of spaciousness is achieved with painted walls for dining and large flowered wall paper in the other areas. All is related in the soft livable shades of greens and yellows. Both rooms have additional accent in their handsome area rugs.

The final touch to the homey atmosphere is the wrought iron compote of fresh flowers. They are always welcoming and identify your home and Bassett furnishings with a very special springtime color, rather than a single bulb, the bloom of which would be lost in the garden.

Members of the California Association of Nurserymen feel there is more to be had from bulbs than just incidental blooms here and there. Certainly massing clumps of bulbs enhances their value in the garden. Especially with Hyacinths, beautiful highlights may be obtained by planting the bulbs in a pattern—using five or seven in a triangular shape.

Consideration should be given to how bulbs are planted with each other and with plant material that will enhance their impact in the garden.

Primarily, getting the most from bulbs is making sure the bulbs you plant aren't lost in the garden. A mistake is not planting enough bulbs. A dozen Daffodils could be overlooked if spaced out from hither to yon. Massed together, this same dozen bulbs would be a thrilling show of spring gold.

flavor and aroma. A special hint to keeping flowers for a longer time, eight flowers from the garden or the florist. Cut flowers should be "hardened" before being arranged in vases. Place the stems in deep, cool water in a roomy jar. Place the jar in a cool place for a few hours before you arrange the flowers. This process insures absorption by the stems of all the water they can hold. Always cut stems at a long slant. Flowers will keep longer if the leaves below the water are removed. Decaying vegetable matter poisons the water. To keep flowers fresh, add a lump of sugar or camphor to the water and change the water for your flowers each day and re-cut the stems about 1/2 inch.

Yes, furniture for using, accessories for collection, and atmosphere and illusion for decor and the result — an area that is comfortable and personally yours.

portance, at this time of year grass seeds can germinate and grow without competition from weeds.

First, it should be determined if the lawn can be renovated or whether you should start and replant from scratch. At this season when lawns may look their worst, the inclination is to start anew. But, if the lawn can be renovated it is the better, less expensive and less laborious choice.

To determine if a lawn can be renovated, stand in the center of the turf and look at a spot about 6 feet away. If, from that distance, the lawn has 50% or more of good perennial grass, renovate. If there is less than half perennial grass, start a new lawn. If they have been given a modicum of care, most lawns can be renovated.

Eliminate Weeds

The renovation program starts with elimination of weeds and feeding the existing grass plants. This can be done at one time with a combination lawn fertilizer and weed killer such as Nutro's Weed and Feed. At this time, too, it would be advisable to test the soil to determine if lime is needed and how much. Take a "composite" soil sample consisting of specimens from a number of places and mixed together. Take this "composite" to your garden store or county agent where it can be tested.

When the weeds have died they should be raked up. After raking, a lawn sweeper can be used to gather them; some people use their rotary mowers with a grass catcher which gathers this debris.

Seeding is then the next order of business. Seed is sold today primarily for the use to which you will put the lawn, or the conditions. For instance, there are blends designed for shady areas; these are blended for heavy traffic or play; still others are for less traffic and a "picture lawn."

Seed should be sown at the rate marked on the package for "renovation." If some areas are completely bare—and there will usually be several of these—seed should be sown at the "new lawn" rate.

Remove Thatch

Watering after seeding is most important. The lawn should be watered daily, preferably during the hottest part of the day, until the seed is germinated. The time it takes to germinate depends on the variety. Some new varieties of grass seed will germinate in as short a time as a week; others may take as long as three weeks.

It may be wise, if clippings have been left on the grass continually for a number of years, to "dethatch" the lawn. This is done by special machinery which pulls out the remains of these dead clippings. It is surprising how much "thatch" can accumulate on a lawn. The powered machines for this chore can be rented. Removing the clippings after moving, or using a grass catcher on the mower will prevent thatch buildup in the future.

After the new grass plants are well up, the lawn should be fertilized again to give it the strength to go through Winter. This time a special blend containing more phosphorous than normal lawn fertilizers is helpful. The extra phosphorus in a fertilizer blend like Winter Survival will bolster crown and root growth so the plants will be stronger and start growth more quickly in the Spring.

Lawn renovation doesn't end in the Fall. The program should continue on into Spring. Prevent crabgrass by applying a pre-emergence chemical in late Winter. This controls the weed before it starts to grow.

Fertilizers should be re-applied in early Spring; use one that is high in nitrogen to give more leaf growth. If necessary, additional seed can also be sown in Spring.
However, check the time interval before reseeding, recommended on the crabgrass preventer package. Fertilize again in late Spring (here, again, you might want to use a formula that contains a weed killer.

Carpet of Color on Concrete

Color-conscious homeowners have found a new method for adding a durable carpet of color to patio floors, with easy to apply concrete stains that provide colorful protection for the walking surface while maintaining the textural appeal of concrete.

The new concrete stains, for use on walkways, driveways and pool areas, come in a variety of colors designed to complement and be at home in their natural outdoor setting. According to a color consultant, the colors were selected for the harmony they have with Nature's color range. Also, any of the colors can be intermixed to obtain a color "original" to set a decorative color pace and mood.

Earthy tones, floral shades, spruce colors — the complete range allows decorative dexterity to please the tastes of many families and homemakers who seek as much individuality in the color plan for the patio as they do for a living room.

The new stains roll on easily with a roller, a large paint brush, a push-broom or a spray gun. The surface to be stained should be free of dirt, wax or grease. Depending on the intensity of color desired, one coat of stain may do the job.

Home Improvement Section

THE MODERN ELECTRIC FOOD WASTE DISPOSER is a compact appliance that takes up virtually no space beneath the kitchen sink, where it's connected to the drain line. A flick of a wall switch activates the disposer, which can handle virtually all food waste except large knuckle bones. Other important features of this modern kitchen: Double-bowl sink and single-handle faucet.

Sink Is Key Factor In Kitchen Planning

The right equipment and the right arrangement are more important in the kitchen than in any other room of the home. And because the homemaker spends a good deal of her day there, it should be bright and cheery, as well.

The basic question in planning is: will it be a compact kitchen with separate dining room or dinette; a large kitchen to include a dinette or lunch bar; or a combination dining room and kitchenette?

The three general kitchen plans — straight wall or corridor type, L-shaped, and U-shaped — depend upon the arrangement of the three major pieces of equipment in the room — sink, range and refrigerator.

Since most kitchen activity centers around the sink, its location and design should be given careful consideration. The best place for a sink is under a window (for natural light and view), and between the refrigerator and range, since it will most often be used in conjunction with these. The automatic dishwasher should be close by.

Many new designs and materials have appeared on the scene in recent years. General preference, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, is for the sink with two compartments. There is a wide choice available of single, double and even triple-bowl units, with or without drainboards. There are even models that fit into a corner.

The faucet should have a swinging spout and be accompanied with a hose spray. A food waste disposer at the sink is an other convenience that saves time and work.

To obtain professional help in planning your kitchen, consult an experienced plumbing contractor, the Bureau suggests. He is a kitchen planning expert who will help create just the kind of kitchen you want.

HANGING DRILL

Home mechanics who like to keep their tools mounted on wall brackets near the workbench are often at a loss when trying to decide how to hang an electric drill. One of the easiest ways is to insert a screweye in the chuck of the drill, then tighten this securely, with the loop sticking out. The drill can then be hung up by hooking the loop of the screweye over a nail, or over a straight hook.

Care of Power Mowers

CARE FOR YOUR POWER MOWER pays dividends in cutting ease. Power lawn mower blades should be sharpened or replaced once a year. A wrench is the only tool required for removing most blades. Mowers also require specialized lubricants. Photo, courtesy Mobil Oil Corporation.

Proof of the popularity of gardening today is the fact that there are over 20 million power lawn mowers in use, according to recent industry estimates.

Lined up hub-to-hub, that many machines could mow a swath 7,000 miles wide.

Today's mowers are ruggedly built machines that can last six or seven years with proper maintenance. However, their life can be cut in half if they do not get proper care.

Power garden equipment experts for Mobil Oil suggest that owners check their mowers each Spring to insure long life and maximum efficiency. Here are their pointers.

Remove rotary mower blades and have them sharpened and balanced. Actually, a new blade costs only a little more. Reels should only be sharpened by a specialist.

Caked, dry grass should be removed from the underside of rotary mowers particularly if the unit's exhaust is under the blade housing. The hot exhaust can ignite the dry grass and start a potentially dangerous fire.

When doing this, or any other work on a power mower, the spark plug wire should be removed to prevent accidental starting.

Oil and gas should be drained if this wasn't done when the mower was put away for the Winter. The crankcase should then be refilled with a special power mower oil. Automotive engine oils should not be used; they are formulated to lubricate engines operating at varying speeds. Power mower engines operate at relatively constant speeds and, therefore, require special oils. Outboard motor oils should be used only with two-cycle engines.

The mower should be washed down with detergent and a scrub brush and rinsed with a hose. All oil plugs and gas caps should be tightened before doing this. A few drops of mower oil should be applied to wheel bearings and any oil cups.

Mower spark plugs rarely need cleaning. If you do remove the plug and have a unit that requires a copper washer under it, do not re-use the old washer. It will not make a proper seal. A new plug and washer is the best bet.

With these simple steps out of the way, practically any power mower can be used throughout the entire season with little or no attention.
